“The hirer releases the Council from any claim which it might otherwise have against the Council on a any account whatsoever by, through or in connection with the supply of the trap by Council or the use of the trap by the hirer, and the hirer indemnifies the Council against any such claims which might be made against the Council by a third party.

The hirer acknowledges that, in setting and otherwise using the trap, and in dealing with any trapped animal, the hirer does not act as agent of the Council or under any authority conferred by the Council.

Without limiting or affecting any other provision of this agreement, the hirer acknowledges that the Council has supplied the trap on the specific basis that the hirer will not use the trap or otherwise deal with any trapped animal in contravention of any provision of the Animal Protection Act, Criminal Code or other relevant law, and that the owner understands that he or she may be subject to criminal penalties if he or she breaches any provision of that Act.

The hirer also acknowledges that he or she may incur civil liability if he or she injures or destroys an animal which is the property of some other person, and that, as set out above, the hirer alone will bear any such liability (as well as being required to indemnify the Council in respect of any claim made against Council by the owner of such an animal). The hirer has been advised in relation to domestic animals that the only way to be sure of avoiding such liability exposure is to treat all trapped animals humanely and in accordance with the laws mentioned above.

I, _____ hereby agree to the terms and conditions of use, as detailed above, of the Council’s cat and dog trap hire. Further, I agree to pay all or any costs associated with the replacement or repair of a trap which is damaged or lost while under my care.
